

Easter Newsletter 2020

Dear Parents

In the lesson, students were recapping the structure of neurons using sweets. This was a fun way to remind the students of the different types of neurons and the various components of a neuron that they must know for their exams. Students really enjoyed the lesson and were very happy that they could eat their resources afterwards! 😊

